SS Peter and Paul Bake Off !

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

A big thank you for all of your donations and support leading up to our Christmas Fayre. This eagerly anticipated event will take place tonight and we look forward to welcoming you all. The Fayre starts at 5pm and will finish at 8pm. A big thank you to the SPFA and all of the volunteers who have worked hard to put this event together.

This morning we judged our Bake off entries and are delighted to announce that first place went to Jaxon Mahoney in Year 1, Second place to James Green in Year 5 and 3rd place to Harry Reilly-Brown in Year 3. Thank you to all of you who provided baked goods. These will be sold at the Christmas Fayre this evening.

Thank you to our Year four class who led Mass this week celebrating the first week of Advent focusing on the theme of Hope. You all did a wonderful job.

We would also like to say thank you to Mrs Harrison and the other fundraisers who raised money to buy a new football kit for the boys team. They wore it for the first time last night and looked very smart. They played well but unfortunately lost their games.

Next week Key Stage One will be holding their Nativity production on Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning. All parents have now been allocated tickets. Due to the number of people attending you will be unable to change your day and time. Those that did not respond have been allocated tickets where there was space available.

Next week we will be doing our Reindeer run on Friday 13th December to raise money for John Taylor Hospice. Sponsor sheets have already been sent home. If you require a new Sponsor form please ask at the school office. All children are to come dressed in their P.E. Kits on Friday and will be given a pair of antlers in class to wear for their run and Will then be allowed to bring them home.

Finally a reminder that the Key Stage Two Carol concert Will take place in the Church on Tuesday 17th December at 6pm.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
