Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Summer 1

Friday 19th April 2024

This week we pray for Helen Staunton who sadly passed away last week.

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

Welcome back everyone. I hope you all had an enjoyable and holy Easter. It has been lovely to hear about all of their adventures over the holiday.

This week we welcomed Nigel Perry-Ogden here from Warwickshire Cricket Board, who is an All Stars & Dynamos Cricket Programme Officer based at Edgbaston Stadium. All children from Year one to Six had a cricket taster session. The children had a fabulous time and hopefully has inspired some of our pupils to become cricketers in the future!

As part of our continued support for our chosen overseas charity CAFOD the school choir will be joining with the Hallelujah choir on Saturday 29th June at 6.30pm until 8pm at St Martins Church in the Bullring, Birmingham. All are welcome to attend this charity concert and it would be lovely to see as many people there as possible to show support for our children. Tickets can be brought from Eventbrite through the link below: -

Finally it is with great sadness that I need to inform you of the passing of our Chair of Governors Helen Staunton. She was a much loved member of the Saint Peter and Paul family and a valued director of the Multi-Academy. We are all devastated by this news and I ask that you keep her family in your prayers at this difficult time especially her husband and her children who are all past pupils of this school. May she rest in peace.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
