Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Autumn 2

Friday 29th November 2024

This Week we Pray for our Year Three and Year Four School Council Reps.

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

What a treat it was this morning to watch Year Threes Class Assembly. It was a lovely way to start our Advent preparations. The children all sang and spoke beautifully. Well done to all involved.

Thank you for all of the donations of bottles for the Christmas Fayre. The Fayre will take place on Friday 6th December from 5pm until 8pm. There will be a variety of stalls and food will be served in the Parish Hall. There is also an opportunity to visit Santa or the Grinch. Slots for these visits are available through the SPFA.

This week Year six worked with Spark Active to learn all about water safety. The children thoroughly enjoyed this session and learnt about how to keep safe around water and what to do if they ever got into trouble whilst in water.

On Monday all children who had requested to receive their Flu vaccinations did so. If your child was ill, so missed this, or you would like them to be vaccinated you will need to organise this through your doctors surgery.

Year five took part in an Active English session on Tuesday. This was to look at learning English in an active and physical way. The children had lots of fun whilst learning all about homophones and SPAG related areas. Thank you to Aspire Active for running this session.

On Wednesday a number of our Year Five and Six girls took part in a football tournament. They represented the school magnificently and won all of their matches bar one which they drew. A special thank you to Miss Chick for running the girls football club every Thursday after school and for taking the girls to this competition.

A form has gone out on Parentmail this week asking Key Stage One parents to select a timeslot for the Nativity production. Spaces are limited on both performances and you are only permitted to attend one slot, either the Wednesday Afternoon or the Thursday morning.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
