This Week we Pray for Year Two

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

Thank you to all of you who attended the SPFA meeting this afternoon. Your support is very much appreciated.

A big well done to our Reception children who enjoyed going on the Reading bus with their Year six buddies for the first time. They all enjoyed spending time together and sharing a story with each other.

Next week on Thursday 3rd October Year Four will be leading us in our annual Harvest Mass. During this time of year we think of those in our local community who may be struggling to feed themselves and their families. From Monday we are asking you to send in donations of food/ toiletries. All donations will go to the Erdington Food Bank. Suggested donations could be tinned food, pasta, rice, soup, toothpaste, toothbrushes, toilet roll etc. All would be gratefully received. We do ask that you do not send in fresh produce as this will not keep. Thank you in advance for your continued support for our local community and your generosity.

Our Reading workshops commence next week. Receptions class workshop will take place on Wednesday 2nd October and Year Three's on Friday 4th October. Workshops will take place in the school hall at 9am until 10am. All parents are invited to come along and work with their child focusing on phonics and reading and how you can support them at home. If you are unable to attend please feel free to send another member of the family in your place. The children love having this opportunity to work alongside an adult. We look forward to seeing you all there.

We look forward to a fantastic year ahead. Have a great Weekend everyone.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
