Summer 1

This week we pray for our Year Five Class

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

What a treat the children and staff had this morning with Receptions class assembly all about Minibeasts. Although I was unable to see it this morning I was lucky enough to watch it earlier in the week and can't believe how confident the children were. They have grown up so much in a year and we are really proud of each and every one of them.

Well done to all of our Year One children who completed their phonics screening check this week and also our Year four children who undertook their times table check last week. You did so very sensibly and all tried your very best. We could not ask for anymore from all of you.

Year Five have had a busy week this week as they undertook their Residential Trip to Alton Castle. They had a fabulous time although I think there are going to be some very tired children as well as staff! Thank you to Mrs Pawley, Mrs Wright and Mrs Adamo for giving up their time to attend the Residential as without them volunteering trips like this could not take place.

A big thank you to Harry and Lydia from Year six who represented our school undertaking some mission work for the Academy at Edmund Campion this morning. They did so with maturity and eloquence. Well done to both of you.

Next week on the 18th June at 6pm SS Peter and Paul school will be hosting an induction evening for New Reception Parents. If your child is starting school in September you are invited to come along. This event is for parents only. We will be meeting the children during our home visits which will also commence next week and on our Transition day on the 3rd July.

Finally, unfortunately Father is no longer able to say SS Peter and Paul school Feast day Mass on Friday 28th June so we have had to change this date to Thursday 27th June at 11am. All are welcome to attend and help us celebrate our special feast day.

Have a lovely Weekend everyone.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
