This Week we Pray for Year Five

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

Welcome back, I hope you all had a lovely Half Term. I am delighted to announce that over Half Term Miss Hanrahan gave birth to a healthy baby girl named Penny. We send her all of our best wishes and can't wait to meet her.

This term we are delighted to welcome Mrs Joyce back into school as our new teaching assistant in Year 1. I know you will all make her very welcome.

Thank you to our Year six class who led us in a beautiful mass on Thursday where we learnt all about Holy Souls. The reading and singing was beautiful. During the month of November we remember and pray for anyone who has died.

Next Friday is a non-uniform day and then each Friday through until 6th December. Each of these non-uniform days is held to support our Christmas Fayre and children will be asked in exchange for wearing non-uniform that they bring in an item for one of the stalls. Next week's item is a Tombola prize. So search through your cupboards and unwanted gifts and send them in. We appreciate your support with this but also understand that some parents may be struggling financially so this is optional not compulsory.

A reminder that the Key Stage One Movie night will take place on Monday 18th November and Key Stage Two Movie night will be on Wednesday 20th November. Tickets for these events are £4 each and must be purchased from the SPFA Website. All tickets for this event must be purchased by the 13th November. Tickets will not be available after this date and children who have not got tickets will unfortunately not be able to stop on these nights. Information about these events have been sent out by SPFA Reps on the class WhatsApp groups.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
