Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Summer 1

Friday 5th July 2024

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

This week has been a busy week in school with our Transition day and celebrating our Multifaith week. All of the children enjoyed meeting their new teachers and year six had a great time visiting their new Secondary schools. I want to say a special well done to our year six children who went to their new schools on Wednesday. I have been contacted by two of the schools to say how well you got on and what great children you are. You are all a credit to the school and your parents.

As we speed towards the end of term ( I can't believe we only have two weeks left !!) we have got a number of events taking place . Next week is our school festival day. Children need to be dropped off and picked up from school at normal time. All parents must have completed a consent form online to give permission for their child / children to take part in this event including permission for the bouncy castle , obstacle course and other events taking place on the day. Any children who we do not have permission forms for will unfortunately be unable to attend. If you require a paper copy you can fill one in at the school office.

On Monday and Tuesday next week the Mini Vinnies will be fundraising on the Key stage One and Key Stage Two playgrounds. There will be a number of games such as guess the name of the teddy, how many sweets in a jar, archery and many more. For the children to take part in if they wish. Key stage one games will take place on Monday and Key stage Two on Tuesday. Games will cost 50p each.

End of Year School reports will be sent out next Friday via Parentmail. If you have any trouble accessing these please contact the school office.

Finally we look forward to seeing you all tonight at our Summer Fayre. Doors open at 5pm and each class will be performing a song on the Junior playground. Year six will be the first class to perform starting at 5.10pm and each class will then follow on afterwards moving from the eldest in the school to the youngest.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

PRIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

NO MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

TALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

SPEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
