Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Summer 2

Friday 16th June 2023

We pray for all of the children in year five and for all of the new friends they made whilst at Alton Castle from St Annes school

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

What a busy week it was last week. Year Five undertook their residential trip to Alton Castle and had a fabulous time. They made lots of new friends with the children from St Annes Catholic Primary school in Chemsley wood and enjoyed taking part in Team building activities and spiritual meditations. The children were all very well behaved, although I am certain they will all have slept well this weekend. I for one will not miss the three flights of castle stairs that we had to climb on a regular basis throughout the day!

Year One led us in Mass on Thursday and Father Michael has informed me about how well they all did. Thank you to Miss Chick and Mrs Adamo for preparing them so well.

On the 5th July all children will take part in a transition afternoon at school where they will move up to their new classes and meet their new teacher and teaching assistant for September. Our Year six children will spend the whole day at their new secondary school and all parents should have received information from their schools about the arrangements for the day. If you have not heard from your secondary school yet please either contact them directly or contact the school office.

On Saturday Year six will be receiving the sacrament of confirmation at 5pm in SS Peter and Paul Church. Please keep these children in your prayers at this special time. We are looking forward to this very special occasion.

Thank you to all of those who came to the SPFA meeting on Friday and volunteered their services for the Summer Fayre, all volunteers are greatly appreciated. The Summer Fayre will take place on 14th July from 5.30pm until 8pm. All children in each year group will also be performing a song starting from 5.30pm. We look forward to seeing you all there.

This weeks non-uniform day will take place on Friday and children are to bring in a donation of either sweets or chocolates.

A reminder that the weather is very hot at the moment and that all children need to have a water bottle and sun hat in school with them. Children should also come to school wearing Sun-cream and are allowed to bring in spare cream which is clearly labelled with their name so that they can re apply this throughout the day.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

Enjoy the rest of your week.

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

PRIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

NO MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

TALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

SPEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
