Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Summer 1

Friday 26th April 2024

This week we pray for our Mini Vinnies who helped look after Gods world this week by taking part in a litter pick.

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

It was lovely to see all of the children dressed in red and white today to celebrate St Georges Day. Next Friday there will be another non-uniform day where the children can wear whatever they like. This is optional and if the children would like to take part there will be a charge of a pound to raise money for Father Hudsons charity.

Thank you to Year Four for Leading us all in a beautiful Mass this week and also a special thank you to Father Gerry for supporting us as a school in Father Prabhakars absence. The parish will be hosting a quiz night in the Parish Hall on Friday 17th May at 7pm. All are welcome and tickets are available from the school office at a charge of eight pounds which includes a fish and chip supper.

A reminder that the Reading Bus is open on a Friday for all families and children to use. It is an opportunity to share a story with your child from 2pm until 2.30pm.

A big thank you to Alex's mum in Year One who has provided the school with art and craft aprons for all of our children. These will come in very handy !!

A big congratulations to Joseph in Year six who has been selected to travel to France as part of the Aston Villa Academy to play in a football Tournament. This is a great achievement. Well done Joseph.

Finally a plea to all parents, please can you ensure that your child/ children is/ are on time for school. We Are having an increased number of children regularly arriving late for school. School gates open at 8.40am And children should be in school no later than 8.50am When the gates will close. Lateness impacts on Children's well being and their education.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

Thank you for your co-operation and support in this matter.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
