Water Safety in Year Five

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all of the year six children who have taken their SAT's test this week. All of them have worked hard and done the best that they can which is all that anyone can ask of them. They have approached these tests with good humour and positivity. Well done to all of you.

Thank you to year One who entertained us this morning with their class assembly all about Pentecost. It was very informative and it was good to see the children so involved and happy.

Year five were visited by Spark active this week and took part in a water safety workshop. There were lots of practical activities involved and the children all participated well. Thank you Miss Chick for organising this.

A massive thank you to all of you who dressed in bright colours on Thursday to commemorate the passing of our chair of Governors Helen Staunton. The family have been blown away by the generous donations made which along with staff donations will be divided between three charities that were close to Helens heart and supported her during her cancer treatment. These are Make 2nds count, Look good Feel Better and Pink Hair.

This weekend our Year Three children will be receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion at 9.30am in SS Peter and Paul Church. We ask that the children are in school by 9am on the morning. The children are then invited to a Communion Breakfast which will take place in the Year Three Classroom straight after Mass. During this time individual photographs will be taken. Parents are welcome to get a cup of tea or coffee in the Parish Hall whilst this take place. Once the individual photographs have been taken, parents and families who would like group photographs taken will be invited to queue to have these taken in the school hall. The group photographs are optional.

Please keep our Year Three children in your prayers this weekend as they receive this special Sacrament.. Have a lovely weekend everyone and keep your fingers crossed for sunshine.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
